March 12, 1984

Dear Colleague:

Last week I sent you an invitation to attend a briefing by the CIA this Thursday, March 15, 1984. This briefing will inform Members about the CIA's newly released report entitled Population, Resources and Politics in the Third World: The Long View.

Please note that the time has been changed. As you know, Dr. Garret Fitzgerald, the Prime Minister of Ireland, will be addressing a Joint Meeting of Congress that morning. In order to avoid a conflict with this address, the CIA briefing will be delayed one half hour.

Formerly set to begin at 11:00 a.m., this briefing will now commence at 11:30 a.m. or as soon as the Joint Meeting of Congress is completed. The room, 2105 Rayburn, remains the same. You may RSVP to the Arms Control and Foreign Policy Caucus at 6-3440.

I look forward to seeing you there.

Yours,

JAMES H. SCHEUER, M.C.
